All 22 Local Authorities in Wales have signed the Armed Forces Covenant.

The Armed Forces Covenant is a promise by the nation, ensuring that those who serve or who have served in the Armed Forces, and their families, are treated fairly.

The covenant focuses on helping members of the Armed Forces community, experience neither advantage nor disadvantage due to Service and therefore have the same access to government and commercial services and products as any other citizen.

Our commitment to our Service Children

At Baglan Primary School we are wholly committed to supporting our service children and their families.

We demonstrate our commitment to the Armed Forces Covenant through the following activities:

- We engage with SSCE Cymru and the resources and support they provide;
- We identify our Service Children and ensure they are supported in education;
- We celebrate our Service Children and their families;
- We provide opportunities for our Service families to share their experiences;
- We provide opportunities for our Service Children to share their experiences with their peers;
- We engage with our Armed Forces Community;
- We are proactive in gaining information that will enable us to support our Service Children;

- We ensure all our pupils have opportunities to learn about the current Armed Forces operations and commitments of the UK Service Personnel;
- We understand the commitments and sacrifices that our Armed Forces families make in ensuring we can be safe and protected from danger.

Rights of the Child

- Article 3 – Adults must do what is best for me.
- Article 6 – I should be supported to live and grow.
- Article 12 – I have the right to be listened to and taken seriously.
- Article 15 – I have the right to meet with friends and join groups.
- Article 28 – I have the right to an education.

Statements of What Matters

- Health and Well-being - Developing physical health and well-being has lifelong benefits.
- Health and Well-being – How we process and respond to our experiences affects our mental health and emotional well-being.

Support for Service Families

Designated Staff

Within the school, we have four key members of staff who have undertaken relevant training to support Service children and Service families alike. We are always here for support, guidance, or just as someone to listen.

These members of staff are;

Miss E Wilson – Nursery Teacher

Mrs N E Morgan – Headteacher
