Temporary ALN Teaching Staff required

October/ November? 2022- August 2023

2x Full Time teacher (maternity leave)

The Governors of Ysgol Maes y Coed wish to appoint enthusiastic and innovative teachers to work in our school which caters for pupils with severe and complex learning needs and those on the Autistic Spectrum, covering maternity leaves of up to one year.

You will need to be flexible and willing to work with pupils who display a wide range of learning needs.

The successful candidates will become members of a team of professionals committed to working effectively with our pupils to meet their additional learning needs.

Experience of working with pupils with complex needs would be advantageous, but a person who has energy, commitment and a willingness to learn would be welcome to apply.

We can offer you:

- Amazing young people who always try their very best
- Hardworking and dedicated staff,
- Honest, committed and enthusiastic Governors and parents, who work in partnership with the school,
- A wider community who respect, care and work with the school,
- Excellent CPD opportunities.

Ysgol Maes y Coed is totally committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The recruitment process for this post will be underpinned by rigorous safer recruitment assessment to ensure that children and young people are protected.

These posts are subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service Enhanced Disclosure.

This post is subject to a six month probationary period.

Closing date for applications: noon on Friday 30th September
