

Find below a grid of activities that you can complete at home in addition to your daily do's.

Year 4

Interview an adult. Ask them about their life. Use bullet point notes to record your information. Write their autobiography	Create a robot using empty boxes and bottles. Can your robot include any moveable Parts?	Bake a cake with an adult. Cut into slices and create equivalent fractions. How many equivalent fractions can you make?	Find objects in the house. Create alliterative sentences. Write a sentence about each object, starting as many words as you can with the same letter. For example: Dad delays doing dirty dishes.
Write a review based on your favourite book. Use emotive language that would persuade somebody to read the book. Create a new front cover for the book.	Measure the perimeter of each room. Which room has the greatest perimeter? Walk around the house and predict which room has the greatest perimeter. Then, measure all sides of each room. Was your prediction correct?	Go on a hunt for right angles. How many can you find? Record your findings by taking photographs or writing a list.	Look at prices on a receipt. Find different combinations of coins you could use to pay Find the different coins that could be used to pay for each item on its own. Discuss the change from a £5, £10 or £20 note. Explore how the change could be given.
Watch your favourite movie write a review to encourage other children to watch it. Think about the plot and the best points.	Design a video game. Create a story board to describe what happens. Discuss what the objective of the game is and what the main character has to do along the way. What type of game will it be?	Listen to your favourite songs. Identify the instruments you can hear. by different instruments. Use effective adjectives to describe the sounds.	Write a poem about today's weather. Use similes and personification. Look outside the window and discuss what the weather is like.