

Ynysfach's Summer Reading Challenge

| | | | | |
|--|--|---|--|---|
| Read a story to your pet or your teddy bears. | Read a book in a tent or in a blanket fort that you build. | Read a book outside in the fresh air. | Read a book to someone in your family. | Read a book in a silly voice. |
| Read a book that your parents read when they were a child. | Write your own story and read it someone in your family. | Read a book to someone in your family over the phone/video call | Read a book when you are upside down on the sofa. | Read a book under the table like a sneaky book ninja! |
| Take a trip to the library and read a book | Read a book in bed under the covers with a torch. | Choose the most unusual place you can think of to read a book | Read a book when you are on the swings in the park | Read a book when you are eating an icecream. |
| Ask someone in your family to read to you. | Read a book sitting under a tree. | Dress up as a book character while reading. | Read a book at the beach. | Read a book when you are having your breakfast. |

The Reading Ambassadors have created a holiday reading challenge for you. Try and do as many of these challenges as you can. Could you complete a row of 4 or even 5? Could you complete 10? Could you maybe do them all?!! Please take some photos of you doing your reading challenges and either post them on Twitter or bring them into school in the first week in September. We can't wait to see them!

Challenge - Ask your parents to do the challenges with you - take photos so we can see what you did together!

Reading Ambassadors will display the photos in the library and pick the person who read a book in the weirdest place and also someone who wore the strangest outfit to read their book. Good luck!
