

Big Question - Together we can

The children will be given opportunities to work together creatively using a range of tools and techniques. They will express their feelings and emotions in a variety of ways including through music, dance and art.